PLANT YOUR INTENTION

MY CHAPTERS

Every new chapter deserves a symbol.

A collection of intentions, moments and reflections.

PLANT YOUR INTENTION

Your Journey

A new chapter has begun.

Every intention starts as a small seed — a quiet thought, a personal promise, a hope for what comes next.

This page is a place to remember this moment: what you are creating, what you are leaving behind, and who you are becoming.

Let your intention grow.
